WOMEN'S COMMISSION ANNOUNCES NEW OFFICERS

The Lincoln-Lancaster Women's Commission (LLWC) announces the following volunteer Commissioners elected to serve as officers for 2003-2004 term:

President - Nancy Intermill, owner of Accountable Solutions consulting firm.

Vice President - Holly Burns, executive director of the Hispanic Center.

Member-at-Large - Bridget Christensen, teacher at Southeast Community College

Member-at-large - Helen Fagan, Diversity Coordinator for BryanLGH Medical Center.

Immediate Past President - Dr. Mary Beck is a professor in animal science at the University of Nebraska-East Campus.

Working as a division of the Mayor's Office since 1976, the Lincoln-Lancaster Women's Commission strives to fulfill its mission of advising City and County officials of social, economic and legal barriers that prevent women from choosing their roles in the family, the labor force and society in general, and working toward the elimination of those barriers. With 15 volunteers and a paid staff of three, the Commission continues to engage in activities designed to heighten community awareness in the areas of self-sufficiency, health care, safety, education and act as a clearinghouse of information for women in need.
